TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

We at CANSA are impressed with level of service received from Kuth Consultants and can gladly endorse their value proposition.

We signed up with Kuth Consultants on a 3 month contract. It was our expectation that they would be able to add value in optimising our organisation, but after the first month it became apparent this would be a significant exercise. By the end of the second month they have already achieved a 7 digit saving, solved a legacy data transfer issue related to our new 3D system, used their connections to assist with a three years dispute with a supplier that had reached a very unpleasant impasse.

The number of mandates that we now have with them has grown to 13 and spans from Banking to procurement, Insurance to Printers. Such has been the success of our association that we have extend their contract by a further 6 months.

We have seen their advisory capacity as advisors to the General Manager, CFO and CEO to the extent that they have been invited into EXCO meetings and given autonomy to handle complex matters on behalf of EXCO (regularly reporting back and assisting to frame strategy). Their ability to audit and interpret huge amounts of data has seen us have sight of several areas of the business that required attention unbeknownst to us prior. We understood this to be their first contract with an NGO and we initial were slightly concerned about how well they would adapt to the personnel and practises, some of which will differ quite considerably from the corporate environment they were used to but we have found the experience very pleasant, they have gone the extra mile to assist us and availed such a wide range of expertise and resources.

Kuth Consultants are professional and will be most valuable to your company.

We consider our relationship with Kuth Consultants to be extremely beneficial. They are able to operate seamlessly within our organisation & interact at all levels without any problems.

Their efficiency & professionalism is refreshing and has made a great difference within our organization. We look forward to the benefits sure to be enjoyed from the additional six months we mutually now will share.

Yours Sincerely
